Say Francisco, Mar. 7.—About ten thousand dolars last night to see George Robinson, an annateur athlete, fall fifty or sixty times on the spar-deck of the Pavilion, the object of this display of agility being a natural deaire on the part of Mr. Robinson to avoid any unpleasantness occurring between the left side of his jaw and John L. Sullivan's good right hand. In the third round Robinson actually went down twenty-one times, although he was scarcely so much as touched by his annagonist's glore. In the fourth round he had only managed twelve tumbles when the referee declared the "match" in favor of Sullivan, on the ground that Robinson had gone down three times in that round without even the notion of a blow as an excuse. This ended the great "knockout," and Robinson had gone down three times in that round without even the notion of a blow as an excuse. This ended the great "knockout," and Robinson left the platform among a storm of ground and hisses, while Sullivan received some slight token of applaines for his apparent willingness to fight, if only a chaines had been given him. A more dispansed their way out of the Pavilion. San Francisco, Mar. 9.—The storm prevailing bere, bade fair last night to become even more severe, as the barometer was steadily falling, and the velocity of the air currents outside the Heads was fifty-two miles an hour, while on the bay it ranged between thirty and forty. On the inside it came in puffs and squalls, and but for due warning the shipping in the harbor might have sneakined serious damage. As it was, two whaling vessels off the southern portion of the city dragged anchors and were in imminent danger from collision, but the services of a tag boat adverted it. Several vessels lying by the docks were chafed, and a number of small boats got adrift, and some wore not recovered.

Sax Jose, Mar. 9.—Since last night the heaviest rain of the season has fallen and is still pouring down. The amount for the twenty-four hours was 1.40 inches; for the storm of five days, 3.30 inches, and for the season, 12.47 inches. The creeks have never been so high since 1872. The Gnadalup and Los Catos Creeks have overflowed the banks above and below the city, and many farms are flooded.

Boston, Mar. 10.—Nathan P. Pratt, formerly treasurer of the Reading (Mass.). Savings Bank, convicted of embergling funds in 1879, was sentenced to-day to four year's impresonment at hard labor. Pratt is seventy-three verse oid and pending the proceedings was confined in jail for five years. The original defalcation was $100,000, but a portion of the money was recovered, and the loss to depositors was about $40,000. It was shown the defendant did not profit by the defalcation. Though nominally treasurer his son, Sidney P. Pratt, conducted the business and the loss, it was alleged, was through his conduct. He disappeared when the defalcation became known and has never since been heard of.

HAYANA, March 10.—The commercial situation is very critical. Low prices of angar, tightness in the money market and general distrust are necelerating a crisis that may involve all branches of husiness. At Sagna, Rodriguez & Co., sugar exporters, have failed, the liabilities exceeding $30,000. At Cardinas, Mynres & Co., banking and commission merchants, also engaged in sugar exporting, have suspended, being heavily involved in the failure of Rodriguez. Mackellar & Luling are in difficulties of long standing. The sugar market is depressed by scarcity of sugar exporting, so many of whom have failed during the last few years. One or two other banks are regarded with distrust.

Scarm, Mar. 10.—The rebels opened fire on General Graham's forces at one o'clock this morning. The British forces at one formed to repel the charge, but no attack came. The men were thereput ordered to lie down again. The fire of the rebels continued all right, but the British did not reply. One officer and two men were wounded and one man killed. Fighting began at daybreak. The infantry and artillery completely routed the enemy from their pits and tronches. The battle had not lasted more than half an hoar, when a victory of the British was made certain.

A dispatch from General Graham, dated "Osma igens"s camp, March 18th 11.40 a.m.," says: "The map of the enemy has been taken after has ghing. Since eight o'clock this morning or resulty British were killed and 196 wounded."

Wasmistron, March II.—The Mexican treaty was ratified by the Sennte to day by a vote of 4 to 20. The treaty failed of ranification a month ago by only one vote. At that time Senator Comeron of Fennsylvania was paired with Senator Butler of South Carolina on nearly crury question except the Mexican treaty. The only amendment to the treaty was the adoption of the provision that Congress shall pass a law to carry it into effect. This is an amendment almost identical with the provisions of the Hawaiian treaty, so that although the treaty has been rathied by the Senate, unless the House shall agree to the legislation necessary to put it into operation, it will still be a dead letter.
